

Session Organizer: Prof. Tainchi Lu

I am organizing a special session on Agents on Networked Media and its Applications for HIS 2009, which will be held in Shenyang on August 12-14, 2009. It brings together researchers working across this field to share their experience and discuss advanced techniques. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

1. Intelligent approaches and its applications on agent technologies
2. Agent on interactive networked media environments
3. Dynamic network-adaptive media delivery on hybrid networks using agent technologies
4. Agent systems for mobile/ubiquitous/autonomous intelligent information systems
5. Agent architecture for security systems
6. Mobile/wireless/Ad-Hoc networks using agent technologies
7. Agent on content acceleration technologies and its applications
8. Other related issues on agent on networked media and its applications
