Invited Session on Innovative Computing for Image Analysis

Session Organizer : Prof. Chuan-Yu Chang

I am organizing a special session on Innovative Computing for Image Analysis for HIS 2009, which will be held in Shenyang, LiaoNing, China on August 12-14, 2009.

The goal of this session is to bring together researchers interesting in image analysis and its applications. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

1. Image content analysis
2. Medical image analysis
3. Facial expression analysis
4. Face detection and recognition
5. Automatic optical inspection
6. Image segmentation and clustering
7. Other applications on image analysis
