CALL FOR PAPERS

INVITED SESSION: Technologies for Next-Generation Network Environments

Networks have become the foundation of new services. We are seeing integration of heterogeneous networks that provide data close to people. The goal of this special issue is to collect high-quality papers related to technologies for next-generation network environments. This special issue welcomes researchers from both academia and industry to provide solutions. Papers for this special issue is soliciting contributions to topics including but not limited to:

1. Internet of Things
2. Smart GRID
3. Cloud Computing
4. Social Networks
5. RFID
6. Vehicular Ad-hoc Network (VANETs)
7. Self-organized Network (e.g., Sensor Network)
8. Big data
9. Other networks

Full Paper Due Date: 15 February, 2019
